

Conception to Consumption: Scotland

In Scotland, the students toured a cow-calf operation in the lower highlands. They met with animal science specialists of the Scottish Agricultural College who presented on the Scottish Cattle Industry. They also toured two of their experimental farms. One was in the highlands (sheep operation) and the other was a beef operation.

Sheep farm in the lower highlands

Students in the lower highlands

Calving facility at the beef experiment station

Having fun!