

2021 GROWING TOGETHER MONTANA IMPACT REPORT

Growing Together Montana is a collaboration between the MSU Extension Nutrition Education Program and the Master Gardener program that provides grants to active Master Gardener volunteers with a focus on growing and donating produce to local food banks and other emergency food resources. Master Gardeners also have the opportunity to work with SNAP-Ed instructors in their communities to provide nutrition education to the individuals and families that utilize the food donation sites.

6 Growing Together projects

$57,358 Additional Funds Leveraged

12 Extension Master Gardener Volunteers

28 Partner Agencies Engaged

36 Non-Extension Master Gardener Volunteers

8,195 Montanans Reached

1,052 Extension Master Gardener Volunteer Hours

5,379

1,582 Non-Extension Master Gardener Volunteer Hours

POUNDS OF PRODUCE DONATED

28 Organizations Received Produce

Learn more at https://buyeatlivebetter.org/growing_together_montana.html or contact Lydia Sakowski at 406-994-6022 or lydia.sakowski@montana.edu.